

CADALOG END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

CADALOG END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT (EULA)

Version 1.0

March 2026

This End User License Agreement governs the use of the CADALOG software.

License Grant

CADALOG grants the user a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to install and use the software according to the purchased subscription plan.

Permitted Use

The software may be used for professional design and production workflow preparation related to furniture and cabinetry.

Restrictions

Users may not:

- Reverse engineer the software
- Redistribute or sublicense the software
- Modify or attempt to bypass license mechanisms
- Use the software for unlawful purposes

Ownership

The CADALOG software, source code, design, and documentation remain the intellectual property of CADALOG.

Updates

CADALOG may provide updates and improvements to the software. These updates are covered by the same license agreement.

Termination

The license may be terminated if the user violates the terms of this agreement.

Limitation of Liability

The software is provided "as is". CADALOG shall not be liable for indirect damages, production losses, or data loss resulting from use of the software.

Governing Law

This agreement is governed by the laws of Portugal.

